Matt Sumell (Author of Making Nice) - Goodreads

It can be a pretty lonely place out there for a bad guy with a good heart, but I'm feeling just a modicum of better since reading Matt Sumell's "Making Nice." This book's a set of thirteen interconnected short stories about a carwreck of a man named Alby who's trying to navigate the world as an anchorless thirty one year old in the wake of his mother's death from cancer.

Report: Matt Sumell, Author Of 'Making Nice' : NPR

Making Nice. by Sumell, Matt. "In Matt Sumell's blazing, heartbreaking first book, our rage-filled hero Alby is flailing wildly against the world around him--he punches his sister (she deserved it), "unprotectos" broads (they deserved it and liked it), gets drunk and picks fights (all deserved), defends defenseless creatures both large and small and spews insults at children, slow drivers, lunch ladies, and every single surviving member of his family.
