Digital Books - Video Watchdog

Less a standard film reference volume than an obsessive and admittedly daunting lifelong labor of love, Video Watchdog editor Tim Lucas's mammoth study, Mario Bava: All the Colors of the Dark, is easily the most elaborate — and potentially intimidating — cinema book of the year.A 1,130-page large-format hardcover tome that requires considerable forearm strength to move from place to ...

Mario Bava's All the Colors of the Dark - Filmmaker ...

Hey, Tim's human; I'm human (I think); we're all human, and we all make mistakes. And for the wealth of research, reporting, and publishing that Tim has done, his ratio of mistakes is extremely low. But this just struck me as weird, almost bizarre, like it was pulled out of a magic hat, a strange detour of fantasy.
