Things I Want My Daughters

With that in mind, there are four things I want my daughters to know. 1. I want them to know they're deeply loved by God in Christ. Not just by myself and their father or their wider family and friends. That love is important but, even in its best moments, it won't provide the deep satisfaction they crave.

4 Things I Want My Daughters to Know - The Gospel Coalition

Grace is rounding the curve to ten. I am not sure how this is possible. I feel ever more aware of her girlhood and looming adolescence, and of all the things I want her to know, as if I could somehow instill values and beliefs into her, like pressing a penny into soft clay.
